PRIMARY EXAMINER

Continuation of Identification of prior art discussed: The applicant's representative and Examiner discussed the prior art of Fall Out 2 and Baldur's Gate 2 with respect to the commandability of NPC's and how the prior art references were found and evidenced by the game. A brief overview about the evolution of "squad" games were discussed and examples were cited with respect to how the prior art encompassed the claims of the instant invention. In the interview, it was agreed that it would be beneficial for both sides to familiarize themselves with the games used as evidence of prior art before discussing again so that it could be determined whether or not the applicant's invention differed from the prior art of record.
